

Friday 14th November

Evening plenary (18:30-21:00)

A World on Fire

Speakers: Alan Woods & Fiona Lali
Location: The Light (main auditorium)

Saturday 15th November

Morning sessions (10:30-12:15)

Is America heading for a revolution?

Speaker: Fred Weston
Room: The Light (main auditorium)

100 years of Malcolm X: From Nation to Revolution

Speaker: Fiona Lali
Room: Benjamin Lay suite

Shostakovich: The musical voice of the Russian Revolution

Speaker: Peter Kwasiborski
Room: Sarah Fell

Marx's Capital: A guide to capitalism's inner workings (intro to economics)

Speaker: Adam Booth
Room: Ada Salter

Horror without end: Imperialism and the Middle East

Speaker: Lubna Badi
Room: Hilda Clark

Afternoon sessions (13:15-15:00)

Europe in crisis: Block everything for Palestine!

Speaker: Jorge Martin
Room: The Light (main auditorium)

Mao Zedong: His life, legacy, and limits

Speaker: Daniel Morley
Room: Benjamin Lay suite

The Reformation: Religion, Revolution, and the Rise of the Bourgeoisie

Speaker: Joe Russell
Room: Sarah Fell

Feuerbach, philosophy, and the birth of Marxism (intro to philosophy)

Speaker: Nye Shaw
Room: Ada Salter

1945: Liberation, revolution and betrayal

Speaker: James Kilby
Room: Hilda Clark

Late afternoon sessions (15:15-17:00)

Monopolies and imperialism: How big corporations dominate our lives

Speaker: Adam Booth
Room: The Light (main auditorium)

Free speech and repression: Can capitalism still afford democracy?

Speaker: Ben Gliniecki
Room: Benjamin Lay suite

Hugo Chávez and the Bolivarian Revolution

Speaker: Jorge Martin
Room: Sarah Fell

Progress, revolution, and reaction: What drives history forward?

Speaker: Jack Tye Wilson
Room: Ada Salter

1917: How the Russian workers took power

Speaker: Georgina Ryan
Room: Hilda Clark

Evening plenary (17:15-19:00)

The decline of British capitalism and the British revolution

Speaker: Rob Sewell
Room: The Light (main auditorium)

Sunday 16th November

Morning sessions (10:00-11:45)

A history of Palestinian resistance

Speaker: Khaled Malachi

Room: The Light (main auditorium)

Surrealism and Marxism: Dreams, art, and class struggle

Speaker: Will Collins

Room: Benjamin Lay suite

Bubbles, debt and speculation: Why capital is becoming fictitious

Speaker: Niklas Albin Svensson

Room: Sarah Fell

The modern British state: Reform or revolution?

Speaker: Ben Gliniecki

Room: Ada Salter

Capitalism and the oppression of women

Speaker: Manon Powrie

Room: Hilda Clark

Afternoon sessions (12:30-14:15)

Migration and borders: The communist position

Speaker: Fiona Lali

Room: The Light (main auditorium)

How to build a revolutionary party – and how not to

Speaker: Lotta Angantyr

Room: Benjamin Lay suite

Should communists welcome a 'multipolar' world?

Speaker: Hamid Alizadeh

Room: Sarah Fell

Civil war and revolution in Spain: 1931-1939

Speaker: Jack Halinski Fitzpatrick

Room: Ada Salter

Defying US imperialism: Fidel Castro and the Cuban Revolution

Speaker: Keelan Kellegher

Room: Hilda Clark

Late afternoon sessions (14:30-16:15)

Ibrahim Traore, Sankara's legacy, and the fight against imperialism in West Africa

Speaker: Josh Holroyd

Room: The Light (main auditorium)

Republicanism and revolution - The Easter Rising of 1916

Speaker: Orla Thomas

Room: Benjamin Lay suite

Lenin and Trotsky: What they really stood for – a reply to Stalinist slanders

Speaker: Olive Ruadh

Room: Sarah Fell

People, planet and production: What would socialism look like?

Speaker: Sarah Vedrovich

Room: Ada Salter

Science, the crisis in Cosmology and the Big Bang

Speaker: Ben Curry

Room: Hilda Clark

Final plenary session (16:30-17:00)

Closing remarks

Speaker: Fiona Lali

Room: The Light (main auditorium)

